In Loving Memory of

BYRON A. MORALES "CLOVER"

(January 13, 1976 - August 17, 2008)

There is a place, I have been told, Beyond an open gate, All have been invited Where friends and loved ones wait It holds eternal promise, Of everlasting peace, No pain or sorrow ever comes, And teardrops there have ceased. Abundant life is evident, Constant, fresh and new, A garden of provision, With eternity in view. The promise is awaiting, A place we can abide, Fulfilled for all who answer, The call to come inside..... When I am Gone, Detach Yourselves From Me & Let Me Go. I have so Many things to see & Do. You should not tie your selves to me w/tears. Be Happy We Were together for so many years. I gave you My Love. Only You Guys, Will be able to guess how much happiness you all gave to me. I give you thanks for all the love that each of you gave me. But, Now is time for me to go in my journey alone. Therefore, if you feel sad for me, let it be just for a moment that we will be separated; so, Bless the memories in your Hearts.

_____ Cuando me haya ido, despréndase y déjen me ir. Tengo tantas cosas que ver y hacer. No deben atarse a mi con lágrimas, sean felices. Estuvimos tantos años juntos, yo les di mi amor.

Ustedes sólo podrán tratar de adivinar cuánta felicidad me dieron. Les doy las gracias por todo el amor que cada uno de ustedes me dio. Pero ahora es el tiempo que yo viaje solo. Así es que si se sienten tristes por mi háganlo por un ratito nada más y después que su tristeza se convierta en confianza y fe. Es sólo por un momento que vamos a estar separados, así que bendigan los recuerdos en su corazón.

The background of the entire image is a textured, mottled olive-green color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more fully bloomed. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost white color, making them stand out against the darker background. The overall aesthetic is soft and elegant.

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are set against a textured, mottled background of warm, earthy tones, including shades of beige, tan, and light brown. The roses are rendered in a soft, painterly style, with delicate shading on their petals.

My heart goes out to your whole family during this very difficult time. We don't always understand why we lose the one we love and why we have to go through all this heartache and pain. It doesn't seem fair but for some reason God picked this one to be his angel so it shows he was truly special. Apart of him will always be with you and although you may not see him I'm sure he can see you and looking down on you right now. You have a special angel watching over you and the family. You are all in my thoughts in prayers. God bless!!!

El primer dia de traer a nuestro hijo a la casa del hospital, un dia tan divino del Sr. Dios. Piel de satin, ojos de un angelito, tan bellos y inocente's; carino de nuestro corazon; alma de la vida. Nunca pensar que Dios llamara a nuestros hijos tan temprano. La vida es una ruleta, nunca saber que nos toca..... Ano por ano, dia tras dia, esperamos que el destino de nuestros hijos sera lo mejor en todo hecho. Desde ninos chico, en los estudios, los juegos, con amistades y despues de adultos esperamos que tengan buen salud, sigan adelante, y que se enamoren con buena mujer, una quien los quiera y los atienda con amor. Nosotros como madres hacemos lo mas posible de aconsejar, corregir y ayudar con dificultares de la vida y dolores del corazon. La vida es una ruleta, donde nos lleva y que nos trae, nadie ay saber. Dios nos entrego nuestro hijos en la vida y Dios nos llama con el tiempo. La vida es una ruleta, tanto joven como viejo, nunca ay saber. Y al fin espero que NUESTROS HIJOS ESTAN FELIZ con EL SR. I just got informed of this and I am at a stand still. Anxiety has kicked in like a mutha!! It sounds like a cliché, but he was such a cool guy..always made me laugh when I saw him...he use to tell me I was too angry and I'd laugh. He was funny, a gentlemen...so kind..and real. I cannot believe this is true, my heart goes out to his Family. I cannot imagine what you are all going through, but may God give you the strength you need to deal with such pain. Rest In Peace Byron.

My Condolences go out to the loved ones left behind by our brother Byron Morales. I want you to know that even though I am not physically there to help you endure or absorb the pain you are going through, I am there in mind and spirit. My heart will forever be with you and your family. May God find you and your family well today and tomorrow.

The background is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the right is larger and more open, while the one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost white tone, making them stand out against the darker background. The overall aesthetic is soft and nostalgic.

For You Ms. Morales...

Today has reached half of a year that our sons were taken from us. And I know the pain that you are feeling within. So lost, so cold and so empty for we have lost our child.. The few words that we have shared with one another is something that no one will ever partake. Its not a wonderful feeling but it's a comforting feeling to know that we understand one anothers loss and no matter what people say or do; No matter the gentle, kind words that are displayed to us, nothing can ease the pain that we will forever hold in our hearts. Myrna, when I was a young girl, @ the age of 19, I lost my beautiful, sister. Also in a tragic way. During that time as I recall, was so devastating to me and I knew that I would never get over it. But, for my mother, I saw the pain and heart that hovered over her life. Something I couldn't quite understand then. And when my Ernie died, all I could think of is of my mother. Now, I understand the tremendous pain that was so unbearable to her. You see, losing someone close and dear to you is devastating, and deep inside you know you must go on. But when you have lost your child, everything seems so different. As they say, parents are suppose to leave this world before their children. There are no words to describe the emptiness that lies deep down in the pit of your soul. Because regardless of the circumstances in our lives, as mine with my son. Nothing could ever bring me complete comfort. For my Ernie was a part of me as Byron was a part of you. So I pray that today you are holding on because today has been a difficult time for me. Now, after all has been lost, I wish that I could have known your son..... I wish that my son hadn't gone out that night with Bryon and I know that you wish the same with Ernie. But I do know this, that as sad as it may seem, I'm thankful that at least they had each other and both tried to look out for one another, not leaving the other behind, and hopefully in the beyond they were able to comfort one another..... Just as we two can now comfort ourselves. As far as I can see your son was a kind, loving person whom enjoyed the wild side. And as you know, so was my Ernie... Perhaps the reason for their tragic death will soon come to pass and God will ease our pain and our boys will rest in peace. Because right now, today, at this moment, I don't seem to find the comfort or the strength or the motive to move on. My Ernie will be 30 tomarrow, but won't be here and that was something that I so looked forward to. His life was just beginning, just as Byrons seemed to be. Myrna my heart cries out to you and my love and prayers are with you. Lucy (February 17,2009)

Spending Time With You

My Homie Clover, I just wanted to come by to show you some love and let you know that I miss you a grip still. We had a nice time at your pad for your 33rd birthday. I brought you your cake just like I promised but the stupid guy at the bakery wrote like a lil kid. Everyone brought something to eat, and of course the homie brought beer. 🤪 I've been wanting to post up a picture, but I just hadn't gotten a chance to. Don't we look happy? Even mom's is giving up the "A". I bet you're proud, huh? It would've been so much happier if you were physically there with us, but it was still a great feeling to be at your house with your shrine that your mom made of you. We could definitely feel your presence whenever we come over. Well, I hope the Lord above is taking care of you and Ern and Marvin. I love you all and miss you guys so much.

With All My Love and Respect,

What's up big homie? Remember the day I first got into the varrio, It was a hot ass day in LOS we were all kicking it at Snappers house just chilling con los vatos de PLAYBOYS when you busted out saying " Hey shorty when are you getting into the varrio"? I told you" Bamnos reso then" You told me wait until the homegirls get here , I told you that I wanted to be a Tiny Toker , at first you told me hell no there's no homegirls from T.T.S and they're will never be... What did I tell you? I told you that all T.T.S needed was a down ass homegirl and I'm the one who's going to do it, you looked at me and smiled then started swinging on me the homeboys started counting 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,10,11,12,13 but we just kept getting down until the homies pulled us apart, you looked at me stuck your hand out and said welcome to the familia Toquera: from that day on we did everything together you were my best friend . Now god called you home and you had to leave me again, The day I found out you had passed away, was the saddest day in my life, I felt my heart being ripped right out of me , but I do promise you this "our two paths will once again cross, our heavnly will be calling us one by one! All I ask of you is to meet me at the pearly gates and show me the way... I LOVE YOU AND MISS YOU SO MUCH MI CLOVER MUCHO AMOR Y RESPECTO TU

Jennifer "Nena" ABS Family

My Dearest Homie Byron – Big Clover,

I can remember our first days in the neighborhood on Catalina when they called you "Chubbs". It was back in '88 when we were only 12 years old and steadily kicking it in the Alley. I didn't get to spend much time with you over the next 20 years cuz you were always on vacation. But like your bro says below, you were a good guy and a damn good homie. Since you got out in December, we tried to show you a good time so you wouldn't get caught up again, but you were hardheaded and loved the neighborhood too much to stay away. It didn't matter though, cuz as down as you were, you were still such a respectful guy. When you came to my house, you showed nothing but respect to my family and you complimented me on what a good job I was doing. I love you for that and I'll never forget you. And like everyone knows, you were always someone we could all count on if we ever needed anything. It's true what they say, that they always take the best. You and Ernie were some of the best homies we had - always true to the game. The "A Family" had some of our best times together in the last year that you guys were here with us. It will never be the same without you guys. I wish you would've never gone to the Score that night or at least not without the rest of us. I love you and miss you dearly, my friend & homie for life.

The background of the entire image is a textured, mottled olive-green color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more fully bloomed. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost white tone, making them stand out against the darker background. The overall aesthetic is soft and nostalgic.
